Two Tax Offices Are Merged

Mrs. James Irwin checks the hundreds of poinsettias at the Irwin's Greenhouse, Incorporated. The flowers are shipped to florists throughout the country during the Christmas season.

Poinsettias Go Out From Canyon

BY SAM ALLRED

There are 16,500 pots of beautiful Poinsettias waiting to grace holiday tables all over the Southwest, but the seasonal flowers are just a small part of the flowers harvested all year round at Irwin Greenhouses, Inc., in Canyon.

The red, yellow and white Poinsettias will be distributed to florists in a six-state area by Dec. 20, but Mr. and Mrs. Jim Irwin, operators of the greenhouses, already have their sights set on Easter.

"We grow eight year-round crops," said Mrs. Jean Irwin. "These include Azalias, pot mums, Kalanchoe, Apshelandra, Coleus, African Violets, Glaxinias, and Calico."

The 16 greenhouses, located about 5 miles east of Canyon on the VFW road, comprise 80,000 square feet filled with the blazing colors of growing flowers. Holiday flowers, such as Poinsettias and Easter Lilies, lend additional exciting collages of colors to the interior of the greenhouses.

Mrs. Irwin said the stock plants for the Poinsettias were obtained in April and grew all summer at which time cuttings were taken in August and September. The cuttings were rooted in beds of sand then finally transplanted to pots.

"We have just started shipping," she said. "Most of the Poinsettias will be out by the 15th or 20th. We are already in the process of potting the Easter Lilies."

Although the need for flowers stays steady year-round, holidays keep greenhouse employes as busy as traffic officers at the Texas-Arkansas game.

"By Easter and Mother's Day our benches will be so crowded we won't have any room at all," Mrs. Irwin said.

The 25 full-time employes at the greenhouse receive help in their labors by taking advantage of one of the most automated greenhouses in the United States. The growing flowers are automatically watered, vented, heated and air conditioned, with employes making sure they are perfectly sterile in their surroundings.

"We keep the greenhouses as clean as a nursery," Mrs. Irwin said. "The benches are washed and disinfected and the soil we use sterilized. We fog with a poison gas once a week."

Greenhouse operators operate under tighter schedules than airline companies, and if they are not thinking on how to get a two-month blooming plant to bloom all year they are scheming on economizing shelf space.

"Many bulbs are started in pots and you only require so much pot space," Mrs. Irwin said. "But then they have to be spaced and a project starting in one house might require a full second house."

The Irwins only produce holiday flowers for their regular customers because "year-round crops keep the benches full year-round and are therefore more profit-

Mrs. Richard LeGrand and daughter Cris Ann have a get acquainted session in Neblett Memorial Hospital. Cris Ann surprised her parents early Monday morning and was born in the yard at the family home as they were leaving for the hospital.

Little Miss Born In Parents' Yard

"She sure surprised us all," Mrs. Pamela LeGrand, 20 years old, said of her firstborn, Cris Ann, Wednesday.

Cris Ann was born in the yard at the family home 3½ miles west of the E-Way on Hollywood Road some time between 2:15 and 2:30 Monday morning.

Mrs. LeGrand began feeling labor pains about 2 o'clock. Her husband Richard, 26, and his mother, started getting Pamela ready to go to Neblett Hospital in Canyon.

They didn't have as much time as they thought.

The baby was born in the yard. Richard and his mother, Mrs. J.A. LeGrand, loaded Pamela and the newborn babe into the car.

Pamela said she didn't feel much pain. "My only worry was for the baby," she recalls. "But she was crying and so I knew she

Board, Commission In Unanimous Vote

Canyon school and city tax offices were merged Tuesday night by a unanimous vote of the board of trustees and the city commission.

The action climaxed about four years of study.

Authorities believe the move will save city and school taxpayers about $5,000 annually from the first year.

The merger becomes effective Jan. 1 for assessments and Feb. 1 for collections. The merger may be terminated by either party by notice as specified under the contract but such termination must come at the end of a taxing year.

The school will assess and collect taxes for the city under the contract and retain 5 percent of taxes collected for the city. This will cost the city about $13,000 next year.

"It would cost you about $15,000 a year to maintain a tax office if you had a full-time tax assessor-collector," School Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the city commission which met in joint session with the school board.

"The merger will result in a $2,500 savings for both the school and the city."

The school budgeted $36,125 for its tax office alone for 1970-71 while the proposed budget for the joint tax office is $46,155. This figure provides a $7,200 salary for an assistant tax assessor-collector.

Jacobs pointed out three major reasons for combining the two tax offices. These he said are accommodation to the taxpayer, lower cost of operation and increased efficiency.

The two governing boards came to agreement on several items in the hour and a half session which preceded adoption of the contract.

The two boards decided that it would not accept payment of taxes to one entity without payment to the other.

Any partial payment made will be pro-rated to the two taxing agencies.

However, a taxpayer may make payments by installment if he wishes although he will not receive a tax receipt or a discount unless and until both city and school taxes are paid in full.

The two governing bodies have agreed on a 3 percent discount for taxes paid in October.

"The city taxpayer will be getting a discount he hasn't gotten before," Board Member Joe Gill pointed out.

One official noted that it might be cheaper for the taxpayer wishing to pay one entity and let the other ride to borrow the money and pay both taking advantage of the discount.

Both bodies agreed that

County Seeking Road Supervisor

Randall County is seeking a superintendent of roads to go to work some time in January.

Commissioners court authorized the placing of advertisements for a superintendent this week at a regular court meeting.

The superintendent will be in charge of all road maintenance in the county. Currently each commissioner supervises road crews in his own precinct.

Bill Butler, commissioner from Precinct 4 who has long advocated such a move, said both machinery and manpower will be pooled under the new plan. The county barn will be located here at Canyon.

The county machinery will be housed in a barn built two years ago for Precinct 3 and 4. "We had this in mind when we built the barn," Butler declared.

He said there will be three or four crews working on roads in various districts of the county but will be under supervision of one man. He pointed out that the new superintendent must either be an engineer or qualified through experience.

"It will streamline our costs," said the commissioner, adding that it will contribute to more efficiency and a better all around job.

"We will be able to have our own mechanic to do minor repairs, work we've been having to take out," Butler went on. "He'll have plenty to do."

Butler also noted that the new plan will enable the county to buy machinery that no single precinct could afford before. "One thing we'll own is a back hoe," said Butler. "No precinct could ever afford one."

In other business, the court accepted a bid of $130.32 for twelve chairs for the Amarillo court house annex.

The court heard a request

P.O. Hours Set Saturday

The Post Office will provide window service for parcel post and sale of stamps Saturday, December 12 and 19 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

The Post Office will also retain the regular 5:45 p.m. closing time on Friday afternoons.

CHS Choir Performs Tonight

The Canyon High School Choirs will perform their annual Christmas Concert tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Canyon High School Auditorium.

The concert will include selections sung by the Chorale, the mixed choir, and the girl's choir with special harp accompaniment.

Admission for the concert will be 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students.

Sunday at 3:00 p.m. the Chorale will present Handel's "Messiah" in the CHS auditorium.

The Chorale will be accompanied by Mrs. J. W. King on the organ and a String Quartet from WTSU.

Admission to the Sunday performance is free.

Housing To Ease After Semester

BY SAM ALLRED

The acute shortage of apartments in Canyon may be eased after the semester break as West Texas State University students who could not be housed on campus this fall are required to move into available dorms.

WTSU officials Monday reminded students living off campus that special permission will be required to continue to do so during the spring semester.

"A number of students were permitted to live off campus last fall because we simply lacked the facilities to accommodate them," said Mrs. Jean Moore, WTSU dean of women. "However, we are anticipating no housing shortage for the spring with the possible exception of upperclassman facilities."

Mrs. Moore said that students making arrangements to live off campus last fall were informed they would be required to move into university housing in the spring if facilities were available.

"We now have about 600 freshman girls in the halls and I roughly anticipate 100 not returning for the spring semester because of work or marriage," she said. "These vacancies will have to be filled."

Weldon Trice, WTSU dean of men, said he anticipated

Buffs Open Home Stand At Center

West Texas State University's Buffaloes open their home basketball season at 7:30 p.m. tonight in Amarillo's Civic Center Coliseum against NAIA powerhouse Eastern New Mexico University, after dividing a pair of games on the road.

The Buffaloes of coach Dennis Walling lost 73-63 to highly-regarded Weber State Tuesday night in their opener and then knocked off Utah State, the nation's ninth ranked team, 81-78, Wednesday night.

Both Weber State and Utah State have been NCAA playoff entries for the past two seasons. Weber is paced by 6-8 All-American hopeful Willie Sojourner, while Utah State has a pair of All-American candidates in 6-8 Marvin Roberts and 6-6 Nate Williams.

The Buffaloes held all three of the players well below their productions of last year. Sojourner tallied 16 points and had 18 rebounds, but several of his buckets came in the closing minutes of the game when the Buffaloes were forced to a pressing defense in order to close the point gap.

Roberts managed only 16 points and had eight turnovers as 6-6 Buffalo sophomore Jerrry Christian did an outstanding job on defense. Williams managed 18 points.

Ray Golson, who had 14 points in the opener, tallied 30 points against Utah State. The 6-3 junior college transfer has 44 points through two games to lead the Buffs in scoring with a 22-point per game average.

Steve Davidson, the Buffs' 6-7 All-American candidate, fired in 14 points and pulled down 16 rebounds against Weber and then had a 25-point effort against Utah State with 11 rebounds.

The Greyhounds will furnish the Buffs plenty of competition. The Hounds have a

Canyon Lad Is Injured In Practice

Keith Keeling will undergo surgery today at High Plains Baptist Hospital for a fracture of a small bone just below the knee.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Keeling of Canyon.

Freshman Coach Bill Murren said Keeling was running layup drill when his leg collapsed under him.

An Amarillo specialist Wednesday told the family that a small bone just below the knee was fractured. The operation is for the purpose of putting a pin in the leg.

Keith is expected to be in a cast for about six weeks. The young athlete's father said Keith was told by a specialist that the fracture is not likely to recur.

Keeling has a freshman basketball scholarship at WTSU. He was a Canyon Eagle basketball player last season.

The freshmen lost to LCC 78-60 in the contest at Lubbock. They will play their second game of the season Saturday night at Clarendon against Clarendon Junior College.

Talented Artist

Composer Dies

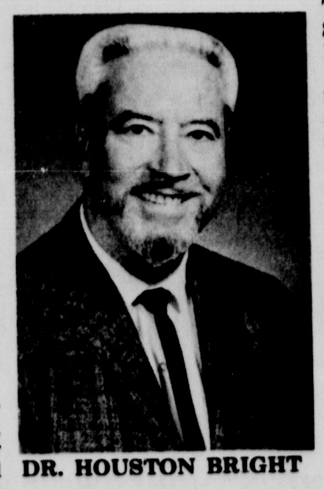
Dr. Houston Bright, 54, composer-in-residence and member of the music faculty at West Texas State University for 30 years before his retirement last May, died Tuesday morning at his home in Canyon.

Dr. Bright died in his sleep of a heart ailment.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the LaGrone Funeral Home Chapel. Rev. J. Frank Peery, pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Canyon, officiated. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery.

Pallbearers for the services were Herman Demus, Donald Olson, Dr. Walter Juniper, Chris Munn, Fred Carpenter and Wayland Merriman.

"He was one of our finest creative artists and had contributed greatly to the development of the institution through his work as a creative musician," commented Dr. James P. Cornette, WTSU president, who appointed Dr. Bright composer-in-residence in 1965.



DR. HOUSTON BRIGHT

Dr. Bright served as professor of theory and composition, director of the University Chorale and composer-in-residence before his retirement May 31. He had published more than 70 separate works during his distinguished career.

He was born January 21, 1916 in Midland, Tex., and attended public schools in Central and Northwest Texas before graduating at Shamrock High School in 1932.

Although he composed his first full-length work at the age of 10, he continued the study of piano, voice, clarinet and cornet in high school and graduated from West Texas State University with a B.S. degree in music in 1938.

Dr. Bright received the degree of M.A. with a major in music education in 1940, and with exception of leaves for military service and to complete his doctoral degree, served as a member of the faculty from Septemer 1, 1940 to May 31, 1970.

He enlisted in Armed Forces in August, 1942, and served three and one-half years in the United States, France and Germany before his discharge as a Captain of Infantry.

By August, 1948, he had completed his doctoral residence at the University of Southern California, and received his degree of Ph.D. in music in June, 1952 on ap-

Hinger Is Honored At Rex Reeves

Oscar Hinger, principal at Rex Reeves Elementary School, was honored Tuesday at the annual school Christmas Party with a framed portrait that is to hang in the school's front hall.

"You've overwhelmed me. . ." the principal replied as the large group gave him a standing ovation.

"I'm so grateful for this honor. . . all I can say is thank you."

The gift was purchased by members of the Rex Reeves faculty, retired teachers, members of the school's staff, friends and relatives.

The surprise for Mr. Hinger was planned during his week-long trip to the Texas Elementary Principals and Supervisors Association Conference held in Houston last week.

Arrangements for the electrical outlets were made while he was away and plans to hang the lighted pictures of principals Oscar

With reapportionment, Houston will have more legislators in Austin than the area from the northern tier of Panhandle counties south to Odessa.

For this reason the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce legislative committee's move to pull together this week was a smart one.

The committee asked all the Panhandle legislators to a luncheon and an agreement was reached to work together when they go down to Austin.

The new senator, Max Sherman, will be responsible for calling a weekly caucus of Panhandle legislators. There will be an effort to present a common front.

There also will be an effort to include the districts of Senator John Hightower of Vernon and Senator Doc Blanchard of Lubbock in that common front.

Only in this way can the northern portion of Texas exercise any leverage at all in the legislature, the Amarillo Chamber committee reasons.

The Texas Panhandle has lost its seniority in the state legislature.

Grady Hazlewood, the old gray fox from Canyon, has retired and Max Sherman has taken his place as a newcomer.

The other Panhandle holders of seniority there, Walter Knapp, Oofie Abraham and Hudson Moyer, were all defeated in their respective bids for state office.

This leaves Dean Cobb of Dumas and Tom Christian of Claude as the two senior members of the Panhandle delegation and they are both second termers.

The Panhandle is going to be relying heavily on neighboring legislators—Ralph Wayne of Plainview, Bill Clayton of Springlake and Bill Heatley of Paducah.

Representative Tom Christian is a man with impeccable public relations.

Tom is given to cool thinking and slow talking. He has friends in both political parties who will support him. He keeps in touch with his constituency.

If Bob Price ever were to decide to step down as Congressman, Tom Christian could give anyone a pretty tough race for the job if he were to decide to run.

The old time sheriff was a powerful and respected figure in his county. People listened when he talked because he usually had something important to say.

The country wasn't mobile and the sheriff dealt mostly with home grown criminals, although now and then he came face to face with a Pretty Boy Floyd or a Clyde Barrow.

The sheriff seldom made an arrest as such. He usually just sent word that he wanted to talk to a person and that person showed up at the sheriff's office the next day.

They were tough and men of their word. The sheriff in Lamb County used to be based at Olton. A woman who ran a cafe at Earth would call him and say, "Mr. Irvin there are some boys over here giving me trouble. I want you to come over and arrest them."

"Them boys don't need arrestin'," Irvin would reply. "They don't need to be in jail. Their daddies need them to plow. I'll be over Wednesday and whup the devil out of them."

The legend says that the sheriff would drive over the following Wednesday and do just that. Peace and quiet would reign in the community until some young punks got up enough nerve to challenge him again and then it would all be to do over.

Martha Bryant, a sophomore math student at West Texas State University, complains that most of us talk "hokey" here in the Panhandle.

Martha is something of a genius from Las Cruces, New Mexico. She speaks the King's English and would like for everyone to follow suit.

Martha is correct. It would be much better if we did speak and write the English properly but people won't do it. They will continue to take shortcuts to communication and grammar will continue to suffer.

I made good grades in grammar in college but was soon persuaded not to lean too heavily on it by an editor who instructed me to "write for the Kansas City milkman."

I am afraid that journalists will always be chief culprits in the undermining of our mother tongue.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

On a recent nationwide TV news commentary, farmers were included on the list of welfare recipients who are breaking the taxpayer's backs and ruining the national economy. Are farmers on welfare?

Farmers have but two choices: They can quit farming or obey the government edicts. From the very beginning, the vast majority of farmers have bitterly opposed government control of their land, which includes the "welfare" checks.

In an effort to persuade the farmers to accept his New Deal in 1933, Roosevelt promised them 90% of parity. The starving farmers who were getting 67% of parity reluctantly agreed. And what are they getting now? 67% of parity — the lowest since 1933 — and it is steadily declining.

One farmer in our own area refused to believe the government could tell him what he could plant. When the elevators refused to buy his wheat, he was forced to give all the grain grown on the forbidden acres to the government in exchange for a marketing card. He sold his large farm, and died a pauper in a state hospital. He, like many other farmers, resisted the program to his death.

Farmers all over the U.S. tried every kind of evasion of the "welfare" checks; they have been ferreted out and prosecuted. Millions of farmers have been forced off their farms by the "welfare" program.

In 1945 there were 139.9 million Americans, and 6.0 million farms. In 1965 there were 194.0 million people, and 3.4 million farms. In one 20-year period the New Deal liquidated almost half the farmers who had survived the Depression. While the population increased 39%, farmers decreased 43%.

But that was not enough. In his message to Congress on January 25, 1965, President Johnson called for the liquidation of 2.4 million more farmers. He said 1 million of the top farmers could supply the nation's demand for produce. Johnson's goal was one farmer to feed and clothe 100 Americans (plus exports.)

In just 5 years, that goal is half realized. One American farm worker currently produces food and fiber for 50 people.

In 1900, the average American spent 40% of his disposable income for food. Today he spends 17%. The Englishman spends 26%, the Frenchman 31%, the Japanese 40%, the Russiaan 50%, and (a guesstimate) the Red Chinese 75%.

Kenneth Boulding, one of the bureaucratic advisors for agriculture, is credited with the following statement in a paper he submitted called the "Adaptive Plan for Agriculture": "If you can't get people out of agriculture easily, you are going to have to squeeze agriculture very hard to get them out. You are going to have to do farmers severe injustice in order to solve the problem of allocation."

The farmer one sees living in a nice home and driving a good car is one in five who survived the Depression and the New Deal. Where are the other four?

All of this makes farmers the most discriminated against minority in America. Do they strike? Demonstrate? Burn, loot, and destroy? NO! They work about 16 hours a day, 6 days a week (many work 7), to provide for their own families, and feed and clothe 50 of their urban brothers, who work 8 hours a day, 5 days a week — for 100% of parity prices.

Farming is the most hazardous occupation in America, yet farmers live longer than other men. They have a higher rate of church attendance and lower rates of divorce, crime, mental illness, and alcoholism than their city cousins. (Does that indicate that hard work and deprivation could be the solution to some of our social problems?)

If feeding and clothing 50 taxpayers does not earn the checks the farmer never wanted in the first place, why doesn't the government pay him the 90% of parity he was promised — and keep the "welfare" checks?

In 1896, Wm. Jennings Bryan said, "Burn down your cities and leave our farms, and your cities will spring up again as if by magic. But destroy our farms and the grass will grow in the streets of every city in the country."

Are farmers parasites — or hosts?

The charm course, taught by professional model Ginger Brown, will include sessions on form, dress, grace, and face.

The sessions will be held each Monday night from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Girl Scout House from January 18 to March 1.

The six weeks course is being offered partly as a means of preparing CHS coeds for the upcoming Miss Canyon contest. Total cost of the program is $15.

In connection with the upcoming charm course, the Heritage Woman's Club will hostess a tea December 20 from 3 to 5 p.m. in a location to be announced.

The tea will be held for CHS girls and their mothers. It will serve as a "get acquainted time" for guests and model Ginger Brown. Pre-registration forms for the Highlights of Charm course will be available at the tea.

WT Coed Gives Skiing Tips For Beginners

BY CAROL CRAIN

Headed for the slopes?

Canyon based ski bugs of all ages are making plans to spend upcoming weekends and holidays in nearby ski resorts, such as Santa Fe, Taos, Red River, and other points in New Mexico and Colorado.

One WT coed who loves the sport is Debbie Bodine, Amarillo junior. She started skiing when she was in junior high school and hasn't stopped since.

The physical education major discussed "getting into ski shape" and had some advice for beginning skiers.

"Your legs, knees and ankles need to be strong to ski," Miss Bodine noted. "You use your knees more than any other part of your body. . . they are like springs, in a way."

"I usually spend about three weeks exercising before going skiing for the first time each season." She said that some good exercises that "give you the feel of skiing" included toe touch, running up and down stairs, jumping parallel (a side to side jump), leg stretches, jumping rope, and jogging.

The best thing for a beginner to do is "take a one-hour lesson from a skiing instructor when you start. They know what they are talking about and can help you more than a friend."

"A beginner's ski weekend should begin with a one-hour lesson first thing Saturday morning. The instructor will teach you how to climb up a slope, how to fall, stop, and how to control your speed."

"In the afternoon you can practice on the little slopes and by Sunday you should be able to ski on the intermediate ones."

"Skiing for a weekend costs about $27. Five dollars a day for the lift, $6 ski rental per day and $5 for a lesson."

"Food and lodging are extra," she noted.

"We usually take sandwiches with us and get a coke and candy bar while we're skiing. That way the weekend isn't so expensive."

"Besides, skiing is so much fun you usually don't want to eat," the coed noted.

"Warm clothes are very important," she went on. "Beginners can have a pair of jeans weatherproofed at the cleaners if they like."

"This saves money, then if they like to ski they can get regular ski clothes later."

"You should wear long underwear, a warm sweater, good insulated gloves, and something over your ears. Sun glasses are nice to have, but aren't really necessary."

"And, you should try to keep your gloves from getting wet, if you can," the skier continued. "When you stop on the mountain, to put a ski back on or something, put your gloves on top of your poles."

"Oh yes, you should be sure that you check the latches on your bindings. They should release your skis when you fall."

"When you do fall, just relax and fall into the slope, to the side."

"Don't ski when you're tired," she warned, "when you are tired you are more prone to injure yourself."

"When you are on the slopes and you see someone in front of you choose the best side to go around and yell, 'On your left' or 'On your right'. That's slope courtesy."

"The best snow for skiing has a 60-inch base topped with 2 inches of powdery snow," she noted.

"When it's icy on top it's hard to stop and you have to press on your skis extra hard."

"The main thing you have to know about skiing before you go on the big slopes is how to control your speed and how to stop."

The pretty skier broke her ankle the first time out by getting on the big slope too soon. That didn't stop her from going back, though. She hopes to go to Creste Butte, Colorado, her favorite ski spot, sometime this winter.

Risners Have Baby Girl

Skiing anyone? Debbie Bodine, physical education major from Amarillo, is ready for the slopes. In the related article she gives some skiing tips for beginners.

Chi Upsilon Of Beta Sigma Phi Hears Interior Decorator

The Chi Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met for a regular meeting Wednesday, December 2 in the Jerry Costley home.

An executive board meeting preceded the business meeting. The business meeting was called to order by chapter president, Mrs. Lewel Johnston. She led the members in the Opening Ritual.

A letter was discussed from the International office concerning a $1,000 Walter W. Ross Memorial Scholarship. Each chapter is invited to propose a candidate for one of the scholarships.

Randy Costley, a senior at Canyon High School, was voted as Chi Upsilon's candidate. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Costley.

The chapter made plans for the Christmas party which will be held at 9:00 p.m. Saturday in the Meade Michael home.

Mrs. Carl Sims won the door prize at the meeting.

The program for the evening was given by Lester Crow, former interior decorator from Amarillo. The program was entitled "Our Own Home."

Mr. Crow stated that "a home should be suited to your personality. A room, however, must never be completely the way you want it...you should always be able to see some little ornament you would like to add."

"The colors of rooms affect one's own personality," he continued. "A room with red or bright colors make a person more cheerful, than rooms with drab colors."

Mrs. Jerry Costley served refreshments to the thirteen members present and the guest speaker. Mrs. Lester Crow was co-hostess.

The next regular meeting will be held December 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Meade Michael home. Secret sisters will exchange Christmas gifts at the meeting.

Mrs. Michael will be in charge of the program and Mrs. Lewel Johnston will be co-hostess.

News Brief

The 6th grade Band Concert will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the Rex Reeves all purpose room.

Miss Anderson, Hansen Wed At Hill Chapel

Sharon Lynn Anderson became the bride of John Stanley Hansen, Jr., in a double ring ceremony at the Joseph A. Hill Memorial Chapel, November 27.

The Reverend Frank Peery officated the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leroy Anderson of Stinnett. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley Hansen, Sr. of Amarillo.

Mrs. Glen Dowlen played traditional wedding music at the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a formal gown of imported organza over peau de soie and Alencon lace. The molded organza bodice was designed with a scooped neckline and elbow length bell sleeves.

Re-embroidered Alencon lace encircled the crescent empire waistline and embellished the front of the A-line organza skirt. Identical lace motifs were repeated on the center of the fan-shaped silk organza chapel train that flowed from lace appliques at the back bodice line.

A tiered veil of silk illusion with separate circular face veil, fell in bouffant fullness around the double crown of Alencon lace petals which were outlined in pearls.

The bride wore a gold wishbone necklace with ruby center surrounded by seed pearls, belonging to her grandmother, for something old.

She carried a bouquet of sweetheart orchids atop a white lace covered Bible.

Mrs. Glen Jackson of Lubbock served the bride as Matron of Honor and Miss Janis Morgan of Stinnett was bridesmaid.

The attendants' gowns were fashioned in empire designs of red satin with red chiffon overlay. The gowns were highlighted with white flower trim around the midriffs and upper parts of the sleeves. Red Dior bows accented the white trim at the middle of the back. Adjoining the trim on the sleeves, a double layer of chiffon extended to the wrist.

The pillbox headpieces were made of matching red satin and chiffon accented by a bow in the middle back from which an illusion veil of net fell to the neckline.

The attendants carried bouquets of red and white spider carnations.

Tom G. Lair of Canyon, cousin of the groom, served the groom as best man and Bill Weatherly of Friona was the groomsman.

Glen Metcalf of Canyon and Wendy Williams of Panhandle served as ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mrs. T. H. Lair. The reception table was covered by a cloth crocheted by the bride's great grandmother.

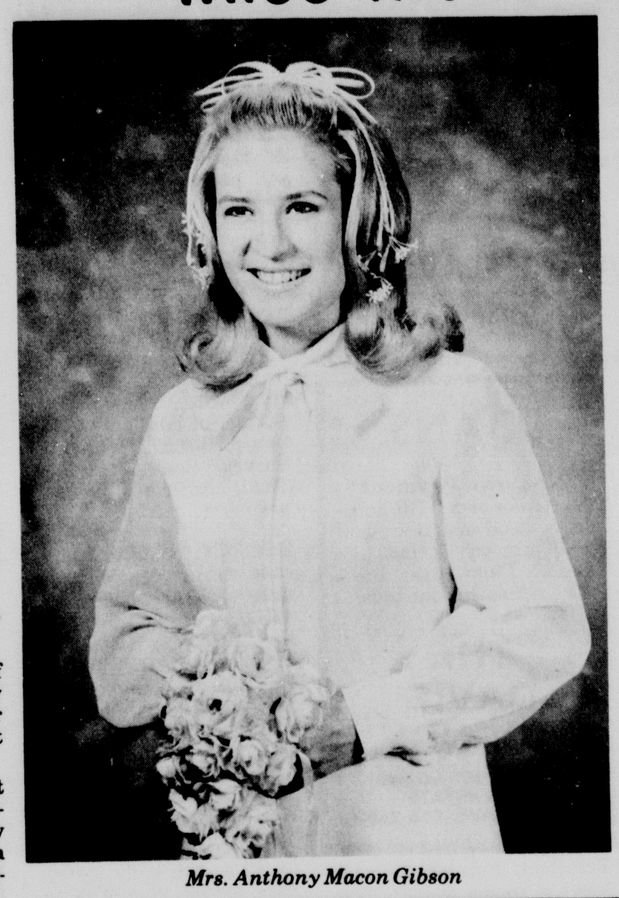
The couple will be at home at 1825 North 3rd in Tahoka.

The bride is a graduate of West Texas State University and is employed as a teacher in the Tahoka Independent School District.

The groom is a senior at West Texas State University, a member of the varsity football team, and Kappa Alpha Order, social fraternity.

Mrs. John Stanley Hansen, Jr.

Miss Hicks-Gibson Wed In Hawaii



Mrs. Anthony Macon Gibson

Melissa Ann Hicks of Canyon became the bride of Anthony Macon Gibson in a recent ceremony at Kalihi Baptist Church in Honolulu, Hawaii.

The Reverend Henry Webb, formerly of Canyon, officiated the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnis Orville Hicks of Canyon. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gibson of Daugherty.

The bride wore a street-length white voile princess styled dress with rolled collar accented with a soft bow. The dress had long sleeves cuffed at the wrist.

The bride's headdress was a looped bow of rolled satin, ending in dainty flowers. Her shoes were of white peau de soie and she wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom, around her neck.

Her flowers were a six strand lei of Pikaki, the wedding flower of Hawaii.

The bride wore her mother's garter, her sister's, Mrs. Johnny Walker, garter, and one made for her by Mrs. Gibson.

The bride carried a white Bible, carried by her mother in her wedding, and the handkerchief belonging to a great grandmother. The handkerchief was also carried by Mrs. Hicks and Mrs. Walker.

The bride was accompanied to Hawaii by her grandmother, Mrs. J. D. Ivey of Hale Center and her great-aunt Mrs. W. V. Cunningham of Abernathy.

After the couple's honeymoon in Hawaii the groom returned to Vietnam. The bride will enter college while awaiting his return to the States in May.

The bride was recently honored with a personal shower given Jenny Lair, Mrs. Tom Lair, Mrs. Harold Erwin, and Mrs. Don Byars.

A miscellaneous shower was given in the home of Mrs. Sidney Burgess. Decorations were in the bride's colors, olive green and pale yellow.

People who cook with pride cook with GAS. Mrs. S. M. Smith does.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America, and they give themselves every cooking advantage, like gas range cooking. Good cooks like Mrs. Smith and nine out of 10 professional cooks agree that precise temperature control makes the difference in good cooking, and with gas you get exactly that. Gas also gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking.

So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

Here's one of Mrs. Smith's favorite recipes.

PIONEER NATURAL GAS COMPANY

RICE WITH QUAIL OR DOVE CASSEROLE

Mrs. S. M. Smith, 1300 Runnels, Big Spring

5 cups cooked rice (as directed on package)
4 sticks celery diced
4 diced pimentos
2 cans mushroom soup (undiluted)
1 small onion—grated
1 cup grated cheese
1 green pepper cut very fine
4 or 5 cups cooked quail or dove (cut in cubes)

Place 6 or 7 birds in a baking pan. Cover with water, add 2 sticks of butter, salt, pepper, 1 bay leaf, a sprinkle of rosemary. Cover. Place in oven and bake at 350 degrees for about an hour and a half or until tender. Cool and cube. Place in buttered casserole—rice, quail, pepper, onion, and pimento. Pour two cans of undiluted mushroom soup over mixture. Top with grated cheese. Cook in uncovered dish for about 45 minutes at 300 degrees. Serves 12 people. (chicken or turkey may be used)

Bobby Martin, scoring ace for the Canyon Eagle basketball team last year, is now playing with the Clarendon Junior College Bulldogs. His scoring average this season has been 14.2 points a game.

Cager Learns WT Ball Different

Bob Thorpe discovered the differences between high school basketball and collegiate basketball while playing for the West Texas State University freshman team, and he likes them.

"Defense is stressed a great deal more in college and there is more physical contact," he said.

Thorpe, 6-2, 180-pounder is counted on for WTSU coach Dennis Walling this year to add depth to the guard position.

"Bob needs to improve certain phases of his game, but we don't have anyone on the squad working any harder," said Walling. "I expect him to be a fine one before he graduates."

The husky left-hander averaged 5.1 points per game last year on the freshman team, which compiled a 21-5 record and is considered as good a freshman squad as the school has had. He pulled down 2.9 rebounds per game and started about half of the games.

"On defense, you must hustle all of the time and I like that," said Thorpe. He and freshman teammate Scott Doores of Perryton showed their dedication to the game by running cross country following the freshman season. They ran two miles a day, three times a week for the remainder of the spring.

Thorpe didn't get too much playing time in this past summer as he held down two jobs in his hometown of Dumas, Tex. He worked as a laborer for a natural gas company in the daytime and worked evenings at a service station. His basketball playing time was limited to the weekends.

Bob and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Thorpe, moved to Dumas in the summer prior to his sophomore year in high school from Liberal, Kansas.

"I had played all sports at Liberal, but decided to stick to basketball at Dumas," he said.

He was not eligible for varsity play his sophomore year after transfering, but lettered his junior and senior years. While averaging 14 points per game his senior year, he was named to the all district team.

Thorpe's finest game in high school came against Class AAA state finalist Perryton in a district clash. Dumas upset Perryton, 41-40, and he tallied 22 points.

Thorpe is majoring in math at West Texas State.

Talented Artists, Painting the West

Five talented Texans have recently formed a new art alliance known as Artists of the Southwest. The men capture the West as they know it, in vivid paintings. They are Jim Ward and Don Ray of Canyon, and Lloyd Cook, James Ivey Edwards, and Ben Konis of Amarillo.

Jim Ward and Don Ray, both talented Canyon artists, have recently joined Lloyd Cook, James Ivey Edwards, and Ben Konis of Amarillo in forming an art alliance known as Artists of the Southwest.

Each artist paints the West as he sees it. Together their works range from the nostalgic memories of a long-ago West, to the landscapes and portraits of the faces of its people today.

Jim Ward's talent is varied. His paintings, sculptures, and bronzes have been exhibited throughout the Southwest. The artist, a former bronc rider and all-around rodeo performer, paints what he likes and he likes the West.

Ward has lived in Canyon for the past five years. He is a graduate of Oklahoma State University and has a degree in animal husbandry. On his Canyon Ranch, he raises horses both for his family's pleasure and as models for his paintings and sculpture.

His art education includes a course with the Famous Artists School. The cowboy's works have appeared in several western publications and the Sherwood Company in Amarillo has feaured Ward paintings in their Christmas card line for the past three seasons.

The Canyon artist has just recently had a painting reproduced in the November issue of the "Quarter Horse Journal." The December issue of the Journal will feature a six page story on him with full color reproductions of 14 of his paintings.

The December issue of "Western Livestock Journal" will also feature Ward's work, and the Ranchman magazine will have as its cover a Ward painting. Exhibits of his works are found in several galleries, including The Heritage House, Clovis, New Mexico; Texas Art Gallery, Dallas; Jackson Hole Art Gallery, Jackson Hole, Wyoming; Gallery III, Ruidoso, New Mexico; High Plains Gallery, Amarillo; Cross Gallery, Fort Worth; and the Country Store Gallery in Austin.

He and his wife Jacqueline, have three children.

Don Ray, born in Clarendon, the son of a rancher, grew up with a love of nature and of people close to the soil. His paintings are poignant portrayals of the ranch and cowboy life.

Ray enjoyed the freedom of growing up on a cattle ranch, then during college years, spent his summers in the Pacific Northwest as a U.S. Forest Service fire fighter and camp foreman. After graduation from WTSU, Ray became an officer stationed near Carmel, California. Later, he taught art and received a ME from WTSU.

Ray has exhibited in national, regional, and local shows, and maintains his studio in Canyon, where he lives with his wife, Marilyn, and two daughters, Rhona and Kellye.

The three Amarillo artists have similar credits and experience in painting the scenes of the Southwest.

The artists hope that their association will contribute a new dimension in the advancement of art appreciation of the Southwest. The men are planning to exhibit their works in art centers throughout the nation. Immediate plans include shows in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, New York City, Phoenix, Arizona, and Ruidosa, Taos, New Mexico.

The Village Gallery, in Amarillo, is presenting the first Artists of the Southwest Exhibition, December 12th and 13th. Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. W.H. McAtee, 911 5th Avenue, celebrated her 81st birthday Thursday. Mrs. McAtee has lived in Canyon for 43 years. Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Ruth Chandler, and Mrs. C.N. Tippery. Forty-eight persons attended the event.

FEEDING T-E LIQUID FEED IS SO EASY IT COULD SPOIL YOU

When you get out of bed in the morning, your supplement feeding chores may already be done for days to come—if you're feeding T-E Liquid Feed Supplement.

Because one refill of the free-choice range feeders will take care of your herd for about ten days, using a T-E feeder for every 75 to 100 head. All you have to do is make the rounds, once every ten days, stopping at each feeder long enough to watch it fill up.

T-E Liquid Feed Supplement cuts out most of the time, labor and equipment connected with dry supplements . . . saves you money.

The proof of T-E Liquid Feed Supplement is in the extra quality your animals will show—extra energy, extra good health, extra gain. And that means extra profits from your range feeding program.

T-E Liquid Feed Supplement along with adequate roughage, minerals and water, is the easy way to be sure your animals are getting the protein, phosphorus, vitamins and trace minerals they need for energy and growth.

Of course, you do have to get out of bed—at least every ten days. Otherwise it could spoil you.

T-E LIQUID FEED SUPPLEMENT IS MADE FROM A PATENTED FORMULA

The basic ingredients of T-E Liquid Feed Supplement are urea, phosphoric acid, molasses, vitamins A, D and E and trace minerals. The urea is chemically inhibited (by the patented formulation with phosphoric acid and molasses) to control the release of nitrogen and pace its conversion into protein for more efficient use by the animal.

Four New Study Fields At WTSU

Four new major fields of study for the Bachelor of Business Administration Degree at West Texas State University have been approved by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

They are majors in journalism-business, international communication-business, international business, and economics. The economics major replaces the existing major in business economics, which will be dropped.

The name change in the business economics major was to "enhance the vocational usefulness of present instruction and resources and to provide a major program in business more academically appropriate and acceptable than the narrower present major in business economics," said Dr. Walter H. Juniper, academic vice president.

In requesting the international communication-business major, Juniper said, "We strongly believe that the current trend toward increased volume of international business will definitely continue for the foreseeable future. We also believe that West Texas State University should take the lead in fulfilling the needs engendered by this growth."

Juniper said there "is a definite interest in the proposed program in international business both from the standpoint of prospective students and global businesses now seeking employees trained in international business techniques."

He added, "Some of our graduates have been employed for overseas work in spite of their lack of qualifications and if our graduates are to continue to command job offers at attractive salaries, we must provide training in the areas that are currently in demand."

"Anyone whose status is such that he or she is required to live on campus may not live off campus without a written permit from the respective dean's office," Mrs. Moore said.

She reminded students that permission must be obtained prior to the spring semester or the student will not be allowed to complete enrollment.

"This applies to those students who feel they qualify as exceptions to the housing regulation," she said.

WTSU normally excepts students from living on campus if they are living with members of their immediate families, if their work requires them to live off campus, if they must live off campus for health reasons or if they can furnish proof of financial necessity for living off campus.

"Single students who are 21 years of age or older prior to the beginning of the spring semester or who are classified as seniors are not required to live on campus, although they may do so if they so desire," Mrs. Moore said.

The dean of women said that if a student makes an appointment to discuss permission to live off campus, "the entire thing might not take 10 minues and could save the student a day or even two during registration."

"Of course we will negotiate on an individual basis," she said. "If a girl has had to sign a nine-month's contract to secure local housing we will discuss it with her."

Mrs. Moore said she would take a "long look" at such old excuses as "a student can live more cheaply in town or they can't study in the dorms."

"Unless they are in a unique situation they cannot live more cheaply in town," she said. "And we all know there are places to study on campus even if the dorm does get noisy."

She said that normally the county compensates for such extra work by allowing an employe to take off comparative time during the week in slack periods.

However, she told the court she was dismissed by Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector, before she had an opportunity to use up the time she had earned in this manner.

She also told the court she was given two weeks pay as severence pay at the time of her dismissal.

But the coolest one of all was Pamela herself, according to the attending physician.

As for Cris Ann, she wasn't due to arrive until Friday.

proval of his dissertation "The Early Tudor Part-Song in the Court of Henry VII and Henry VIII."

Dr. Bright's musical compositions are frequently performed at composer-festivals and symposia, especially in the Southwest. He was frequently engaged throughout the Southwest as choral adjudicator, clinician, lecturer and festival conductor.

Dr. Bright had written a chord textbook, "Modern Tonal Counterpoint in Two Parts," as well as several articles for various professional periodicals.

One of Dr. Bright's most famous compositions is "I Hear a Voice A-Praying," a choral work published by Shawnee Press and recorded by the Hollywood Presbyterian Church Choir. The song was performed in a number of major European cities during the summer of 1958.

Dr. Bright was a judge at numerous choral contests in the area and for a number of years narrated the WTSU band shows at Buffalo football games.

Only last month Dr. Bright attended the North Dakota Tri-State Music Festival at Dickenson State College as a guest conductor and composition specialist at a clinic there.

He was married June 5, 1941, to Frances Usery in Canyon. Mrs. Bright is a music teacher in the Canyon area.

Dr. Bright sponsored a music scholarship at West Texas State University. For a number of years he did this anonymously.

He was a member of the American Choral Directors Association, Choral Conductors Guild of America, Texas Choral Directors Association, Texas Music Educators Association, American Musicological Society, Music Library Association, Texas Composers Guild and the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

A memorial scholarship in memory of Dr. Bright has been established at WTSU. Anyone wishing to make a contribution in his memory should make checks payable to Friends of Fine Arts and send them to the Fine Arts Department at the university.

Survivors include the wife of 2604 Ninth Avenue, a brother, Weldon Bright of Scottsdale, Ariz., and a niece and nephew.

Knowles Is Re-Elected By Canyon Chamber

Eddie Knowles was re-elected president of Canyon Chamber of Commerce Monday night at a regular meeting of the board of directors.

Knowles is a Canyon car dealer and civic leader. He is the first president of the Chamber to succeed himself as president in recent years.

Kenneth Thompson, manager of the C. R. Anthony Store, here was named vice president. Thompson took active leadership in promotion of Canyon Days last summer.

David West, vice president of Canyon First National Bank, was elected treasurer.

The board designated Friday, Dec. 25, as a city-wide holiday and left it to the discretion of individual business as to whether to remain closed the day following Christmas.

The Chamber Monday night agreed to supervise the annual Fourth of July fireworks celebration in Conner Park next year. This has been done by the Kiwanis Club.

The board discussed Christmas lighting, noting that a start has been made with several merchants lighting their buildings.

There was some discussion as to a banquet speaker for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet which will be held early next year.

Also discussed were plans for promotion of Canyon Days here again next summer in conjunction with the annual Randall County Sheriff's Posse Pony Express Race.

Plans were finalized for the annual Randall County Junior Livesotck breakfast to be held Jan. 16, the final morning of the junior livestock show.

The breakfast will be served to show officials, exhibitors and parents from 6:30 until 8:30 in the Community Center Building.

able."

Although operating a small greenhouse might seem like a pleasant post-retirement job, it takes a tremendous amount of training and experience. Jim Irwin received a degree in the field from Ohio State and then spent fifteen years as a production manager for a large Oklahoma producer before opening his own greenhouses seven years ago.

"It is a business that takes enormous training and is not that profitable," Mrs. Irwin said. "If you lose one plant out of 10 you may lose your profit."

The Irwins have been lucky in one respect. Since beginning with seven greenhouses they have only lost their roofs to hail one time.

"We use a fiberglass that is designed to withstand up to baseball size hail," she said. "We had softball-like hail one time and lost the roofs of seven greenhouses, but we only lost two plants because fiberglass doesn't shatter like glass and cut the plants."

Although the greenhouses seem bursting with colors, even that is carefully regulated.

"Heat fades colors so we put our darker flowers to the rear of the greenhouses where there is a five degree difference in temperatures," she said. "We also use cheesecloth to keep out the light."

When the holiday Poinsetias arrive at local addresses, they will not have come far. But the arduous journey they traveled from bud to bloom is a testament to the care and quality supervision of the Canyon residents who made it all possible.

Co-hostesses for the luncheon meeting were Mrs. John Green, Mrs. Robert Wright, Miss Marva Sue Delk, and Mrs. R. B. Gist.

Mrs. Duane Guy, president, presided at the business session with 41 members present.

The group voted to form a National Affairs Group for a short-term study and Mrs. James Davis will contact interested members.

Members voted to support Mrs. William C. Pool of San Marcos for state president and Mrs. Horace Blank of Bryan for state first vice president.

Mrs. Ernest Carlson, second vice-president and program chairman, introduced Mrs. David Rasco of Amarillo, who presented the program "Journey to the Himalayas" with the aid of her personal film.

Mrs. Rasco told about her recent walking tour through the Himalayas of Nepal, a small country between Tibet and India. Five women, eight guides and ten porters went on the trip.

The travelers were on the road for 28 days, camping out and cooking over a camp fire. The group averaged six miles a day over rough, rugged trails which, at times, were almost straight up.

Breakfast, usually served between 5:30 a.m. and 6:30 a.m., was usually two boiled eggs and a potato, with canned bacon or sausage now and then.

"The people of the mountainous country are very poor averaging an income of $50 a year. Life expectancy is 32 years," the traveler pointed out.

"Even though the porters and guides work very hard, their daily wage is $1.25 per day," Mrs. Rasco reported.

The next AAUW meeting will be a dessert meeting held February 6 at 2:00 p.m. at the Willis Harrison home, 2500 11th Avenue.

The program is entitled "Drowning in Garbage" and will be presented by Mrs. W. M. Stoker.

Perryton Lad Is Buffalo Forward

Much water ran under the bridge between the time little Scott Doores wrote an eighth grade English paper and the time a 6-5, 200-pound Scott Doores started looking for a college to attend after completing his athletic eligibility at Perryton, Tex., High School.

When Doores completed his three sports (football, basketball and track) during his senior year he had three choices among colleges to play basketball.

"Texas Tech, SMU and West Texas State were the only three schools who waited on me," said Scott. "Others were interested in me after football and still others talked to me after basketball, but wanted me to sign them."

After playing football and basketball, he qualified for the regional track meet in three events — 120-yard high hurdles, pole vault and high jump. Several colleges contacted him concerning track, but he decided to pass up that sport for basketball.

"I visited West Texas first, and was impressed and decided to come to school here," he said.

Last year, during his freshman season, Doores tallied 10.5 points per game for the well-balanced club and helped the team to a 21-5 record. A non-major, he maintained a B average in his classroom work.

During the summer, Scott stayed in Canyon and worked for a construction company. On a weekend visit home to Perryton, he was looking through some of his school papers. Among the papers he found his eighth grade English paper.

"We were asked to write an autobiography in the class and tell what we expected to do in the future," Scott said. "I wrote that I wanted to play basketball at West Texas State."

Another factor for Scott in his decision to join coach Dennis Walling at West Texas was that his uncle, Marvin Smith, played football for the Buffaloes and was a member of the 1950 winning Sun Bowl team.

Doores followed in his uncle's footsteps in being a standout football player. He earned all-district honors on both offense and defense as an end for Perryton High his senior year when the Rangers were ranked as the number one Class AAA team in the state for eight weeks.

He averaged 18 points per game in helping lead Perryton to the state basketball tourney that same year and again earned all-district honors. In track he high-jumped 6-2, ran the hurdles in 14.8 and pole-vaulted 12.6.

Hours of practice this summer with former Perryton teammate Bob Gobin (a potential basketball starter at Texas A&M this year) aided Doores in his play this fall. It was the first summer he worked only on basketball.

"In past summers I had spent time throwing a football around," said Doores. "Playing basketball in the evenings has given me additional confidence this fall."

Doores is in a battle for a starting forward berth on the basketball team with fellow sophomores Keith Batiste and Jerry Christian.

Eagles Drop One To Clovis 59-58

The Canyon Eagles lost a close one Tuesday night 59-58 in a game that went down to the wire on the maplewood at Clovis High School Gymnasium.

Canyon was trailing by one point, 57-56, with 55 seconds to go. The Eagles missed a shot and then got the ball back with only 20 seconds left.

The Eagles missed again and Clovis took the ball. Allen Bedell fouled Wes Banks and Banks sank two free throws to put Canyon down 59-56.

Mike Podzemny made a long court throw to Willie Johnson and Johnson sank a field goal in the final five seconds to make the final score 59-58 in favor of Clovis.

Podzemny was high point man for Canyon with 20 points and Johnson was second with 18.

Clovis led Canyon 17-16 at the end of the first quarter and 31-24 at the half. Clovis pulled 7 points ahead 45-38 by the end of the third period.

In spite of the loss, Coach B. B. Kendrick was pleased with the performance of his team. "It was a good game for us," he declared. "We put our defense and offense together and our press worked pretty well in the fourth quarter. We've got a long way to go because we're playing without much experience."

The Eagles got 12 offensive rebounds and 19 defensive rebounds and allowed 15 turnovers. At the free throw line, the Eagles sank 14 of 23 for 65 percent and made 22 field goals of 54 tries for 41 percent.

The Eagles defeated Spearman 37-35 in a cliff hanger here Monday night. Podzemny and Johnson each had 9 points in that contest.

Canyon hit 7 of 18 free throws for 39 percent and sank 15 field goals for 28 percent.

Canyon got 61 rebounds and had 16 turnovers in that contest.

Canyon will be in the Andrews Tournament Friday and Saturday. They open against Pecos at 4:30 Friday afternoon. Teams playing in that tournament include Andrews, Monahans, Pecos, Fort Stockton, Dumas, Levelland, Lamesa and Canyon.

Three of those playing in the tournament are defending district champions. Lamesa has won the meet three years in a row.

Girl Eagles Tip Tigerettes 42-38

Canyon's girl Eagles, paced by sharpshooting Lynette Slack, nudged the Slaton Tigerettes 42-38 here Tuesday night in a contest not decided until the closing seconds.

With just two seconds on the clock, Leta Gill sank two free throws to put the game on ice for Canyon. The Tigerettes inbounded the ball but were unable to get it across the line before the final buzzer sounded.

It was a close ball game and to some extent a defensive battle all the way. The Eagles led 10-7 at the end of the first period but trailed 18-17 at half time. They had taken the lead again by the end of the third quarter.

The girl Eagles shot the ball 37 times and hit 16 field goals for 43 percent. They hit 10 of 18 free throws for 56 percent.

Lynette Slack had a great evening. She sank nine field goals and made five free throws in seven trips to the line to lead scoring in the ball game with 23 points.

Leta Gill was second with 11 points. Leta hit on three of five free throw tries.

Marilyn Meeks was top scorer for Slaton with 19 points. Slaton and Canyon each committed 13 fouls.

Joy Williams pulled down 10 rebounds for Canyon and Cam Davis got 4.

Coach Bob Schneider was pleased with the girl Eagles' performance. "The thing that pleased me more than anything was the fact that we had only six turnovers," Schneider commented. That helped us a lot. In the Quitaque game we had 22.

"This was the best team effort we've had this year."

The junior varsity team defeated Slaton's girl JVs 46-33. Kim Killingsworth was high point with 15 and Lynn Boggs was second with 14.

The girl sophomores barely nudged the Slaton sophomores 42-40. Nancy Boyce was high point for Canyon with 18.

The girl Eagles smashed Quitaque 61-46 at Quitaque Monday night. Leta Gill led scoring with 16 points.

The Canyon girl varsity will be in the Tulia Tournament Thursday, Friday and Saturday while the junior varsity will compete in a tournament at Hartley on the same days.

Mrs. Binning Found Dead

Ella Mae Binning, 32 years old, convicted here in 1965 in the hammer death of her 5-year-old son, was found dead Saturday morning in a Houston

Ironically, Mrs. Binning apparently had been beaten to death with a tire tool and her body tossed 40 feet from a bridge into White Oak Bayou. A bloody tire tool was found nearby.

Mrs. Binning was paroled April 4, 1968, after serving three years of a 16-year-sentence on conviction of the slaying of little Marcus DeWayne Binning.

The child was dead on arrival at an Amarillo hospital on Dec. 14, 1963. An autopsy revealed he had died of a brain hemorrhage caused by a blow on the head.

In a statement to officers after her arrest Mrs. Binning admitted having hit the child on the head with a hammer she was using to hang curtains.

"I was mad at him," she said.

She told officers questioning her, "Yes, I did it. Now leave me alone."

Mrs. Binning was arrested Dec. 14, 1963. She gave birth to a baby boy the following May. The baby and the four surviving children were placed in custody of child welfare.

Mrs. Binning's airman husband did not make an appearance at the trial.

Prior to her death, according to newspaper reports, Mrs. Binning had been working as a go go dancer.

Mrs. Binning was identified through fingerprints on record as a result of her conviction in the death of her son.

The body remained unclaimed early this week at the Houston city morgue. There were no suspects in the case.
